

Authors of RoSE Volume 1 Nr.1 2010

Charlotte von Bülow

is the Director of Crossfields Institute Stroud, England. Over the last 8 years she has been working as an academic administrator and consultant within both traditional and non-traditional further and higher education. She has specialised in achieving recognition (accreditation, validation) for independent further and higher learning centres. Her academic background includes higher education trainings in Counselling and Philosophy of Mind. Charlotte is a trustee of the Biodynamic Agriculture Association, Five Valleys Foyer and Living Earth Land Trust.

Arndt Büssing

is a medical doctor and research professor at the Center for Integrative Medicine of the University of Witten/Herdecke, Germany. He has published several research articles on spirituality and coping with chronic illness.

Bo Dahlin

is Professor of Education at Karlstad University, Sweden, and Research Director at the Rudolf Steiner University College in Oslo, Norway. Bo's main research interest is Philosophy of Education, focusing on existential and spiritual aspects of teaching and learning. His empirical research includes cross-cultural studies of conceptions of learning, based on a qualitative (phenomenographic) approach. He has also conducted a large scale evaluation of Swedish Steiner Waldorf schools.

Axel Föller-Mancini

is a teacher at the Clinic School in Herdecke (Gemeinschaftskrankenhaus). He has a teaching assignment at the Alanus University of Arts and Social Sciences in Alfter, Germany (Faculty of Education) and he is working as a research associate at the Center for Integrative Medicine of the University of Witten/Herdecke, Germany.

Jennifer Gidley

is a psychologist, educator and futures researcher. She is the elected President of the World Futures Studies Federation (2009-2013). Currently Jennifer works as a research fellow in the Global Cities Research Institute, RMIT University, Melbourne, Australia.

Aksel Hugo

was born and lives in Norway. His educational background is in ecology and environmental education from the Norwegian University of Life Sciences, where he is currently teaching as associate professor in science education. He is leading the International Master Degree Programme in Steiner Waldorf Education at Rudolf Steiner University College, Oslo.

Christian Rittelmeyer

born 1940, is a psychologist and was until 2003 Professor of Education at the Göttingen University Educational Seminar. His main work has been focused on research methods in education, anthropology of education, developmental psychology, history of education, and aesthetic education.

Jost Schieren

studied Philosophy, German, and Art History in Essen, as well as in Ann Arbor (Michigan USA). From 1996 to 2006 he taught German and Philosophy at the Rudolf Steiner School in Dortmund. From 2004 to 2008 he was a research associate at the University of Paderborn. Since 2006 he has been associate Professor at the Rudolf Steiner University College in Oslo and since 2008 he has been Professor for school education and in particular Waldorf Education at the Alanus Hochschule in Alfter, Germany.

Wilfried Sommer

born 1967, teacher in mathematics and physics, staff member at the Teacher Training College for Steiner Education and at the Pedagogical Research Centre at Kassel. Since 2007 he is an Assistant Professor at the Alanus University for Arts and Social Sciences, Alfter, Germany.